mang- (mang-), var. man-, mam-: pref. used before words that begin with the vowels and the consonants k, g, h, m, n, ng, w, and y, with k often omitted, to form verbs and nouns, which in the latter case, the first syllable is reduplicated. See mam- and man-.

manga- (ma-nga-): a combining form or particle antiponed to roots to form verbs in the plural form, as in mangatuwâ, mangawalá. Distinguished from mga, a pluralizing particle for nouns. (Note: In his study about this particle (manga-), the author made reference to this as misleading. In the ma- and mag- verbs, as matuwâ, magtawá, etc., he contends that in making these verbs plural, (e.g., mangatuwâ, mangagtawá), manga- is not really the pluralizing particle but -ang-, which is infixed or inserted between the two initial letters of the prefixes ma- and mag-; hence, matuwâ becomes m*ang*atuwâ and magtawá becomes m*ang*agtawá.)
